

Propecia 4 Year Results Released!

Posted by : admin on Oct 09, 2007 - 06:12 AM

Hair Loss News

The results of the Propecia 4 year FDA trials for hair lossThe first glimpse at the how well the original 2 year FDA Propecia trial participants are doing at the 4 year mark. So far everything looks very promising for long term maintenance!The following information has been out for a couple months, however we felt it would be beneficial as many of you may not have seen it. The preliminary Propecia trials which gave it its 83% effectiveness rating were 2 years in duration. The following numbers relate to the continued trials which are now at their 4 year mark:

71% Placebo users were rated as worsened after 4 years

8% Propecia users rated as worsened after 4 years

36% of Propecia users were rated as having no change

29% of Placebo users were rated as having no change

55% of Propecia users were rated as improved at year 4

0% of Placebo users were rated as improved at year 4

Self Assessment:

62% of Propecia patients felt their bald spot was decreasing

18% of Placebo patients felt their bald spot was decreasing

78% felt Propecia continued to improve the appearance of their hair.

39% on Placebo felt their hair continued to improve.

90% of Propecia users felt Propecia continued to slow their hairloss.

64% of Placebo users felt their hair loss continued to slow.

HLT

- For more information on Propecia, view our Propecia Product Review
- Discuss Propecia with others: Propecia Forums
- For more information on purchasing Propecia: Propecia Shop